

BOTANICALS: POWER OF NATURE

The next superfood: Yummy fruit gummies enhanced with botanical extracts

Healthy food is becoming more and more popular. So it comes as no surprise that the demand for natural botanicals is steadily increasing. They lend every product an appealing and genuine appearance, ensure authentic taste – and make it possible to declare it as a natural food. Embedded in a delicious fruit matrix, botanicals offer many benefits to the consumer: in terms of health, attractive appearance and enjoying a natural product etc.
